Clause (b) of section 2 of the Act does not appear to contemplate ~~the~~ appointment by notification. ~~Be~~ Betterment Levy Officers appear to have been appointed by Government in many cases. Under clause (b) of section 2 the appointment can be in respect of any area, or irrigation work. It is not known whether any officers have been appointed with reference to ~~an~~ areas in Bellary District. The administrative Secretariat can take action on the basis of similar orders issued already, if no person has been appointed in the area covered by the irrigation works referred to in the draft at serial No.7.

In view of the above, I request that the two Special Assistant Commissioners for Betterment Levy functioning in this District may kindly be specified as Betterment Levy Officers for the areas as mentioned against each in para.2 of this letter by issue of an appropriate Notification by the Government at an early date.

Incidentally, it may be mentioned here that proposals for creation of a post of one more Special Asst. Commissioner for Betterment Levy with Head-Quarters at Sitapur have been sent to Government (Revenue Department) duly recommended by the Div.Special Commissioner,Gulbarga in his reference No.Rev.Let.71-72-251,dated 3-8-1971. In case, this proposal is approved, the area covering Sitapur Taluk may have to be got delated from the jurisdiction of the Special Asst.Commissioner for Betterment Levy at Bellary soon after the new Spl.Assistant Commissioner assumes charge.

Early orders of Government are solicited in this behalf.

Yours faithfully,

Dept approved by the Deputy Commissioner.
